AEFAA presents a conference on:

Cross border family proceedings between England & Wales and Spain

On: Monday 8th December 2014 from 3pm to 6pm followed by a reception until 8pm (registration open from 2.30pm)

At: Europe House
    32 Smith Square
    London SW1P 3EU

RSVP: by 31st October to ch@dawsoncornwell.com or cmp@dawsoncornwell.com

Please note that numbers are limited so booking is essential
Law, Practice and Procedure in Spanish-British cross-border cases - a practical approach

Programme

Welcome address by Vice President of AEAFA, Gabriela Corpas Domingo

3.00-3.30pm Opening address and the role of the International Liaison Judge
Lady Justice Black, Head of International Family Justice for England and Wales and Miguel Carmona Ruano, Spanish Liaison Magistrate to the UK

3.30-4.00pm Divorce proceedings: Comparative approach and tips on advising clients
Lucy Marks and Lola Lopez-Muelas Vicente

4.00-4.30pm Relocation of Children
James Netto and Esther Susín

4.30-4.45pm Coffee break

4.45-4.50pm Brief presentation of International Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers (IAML)

4.50-5.20pm English peculiarities: Undertakings - Spanish equivalent?
Applications following foreign divorce.
Richard Harrison QC and Sarah Lucy Cooper

5.20-6.00pm Case study on group discussions
Carolina Marín Pedreño- Anne Marie Hutchinson OBE

6.00-8.00pm Closing drinks and networking opportunities